

Section A: Pearling

Find and read about the suit used by pearl divers in Broome. What would it be like to wear this suit? Imagine that you are a pearl diver working in the deep ocean.

What can you hear?

What can you see?

How do you feel?

1. Explore the display cases to find three ways that pearl shells were used.

- _____
- _____
- _____

2. List two countries where pearl divers came from.

1 _____ 2 _____

Section B: Broome lifestyles

Select an interesting object that was once used in the Broome community, for example a telephone or kitchen tool. How does it compare to the tools or equipment used today?

| | |
|-----------------------------|----------------------|
| Object: | |
| How is it similar to today? | How is it different? |

Section C: Aboriginal people

1. Choose one of the Aboriginal tools or objects on display. Can you find an old photo showing an object like this being used by an Aboriginal person? Draw a picture of the object and write a caption to explain what it is and how it was used.

| Picture | Caption |
|---------|---------|
| | |

2. Can you find an object or image which shows how life for local Aboriginal people may have changed after European settlers came to the area? Describe it.

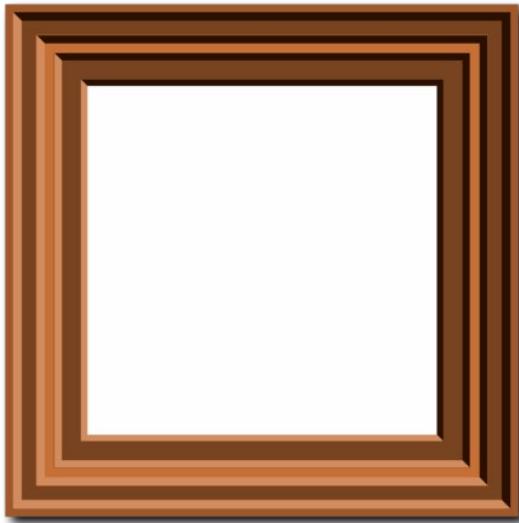

Section D: Wartime

Look carefully at the display related to the Broome during the Second World War. Use this information to create a front page newspaper story for the The West Australian newspaper in March 1942. Create a headline, describe what happened and draw a picture in the spaces provided.

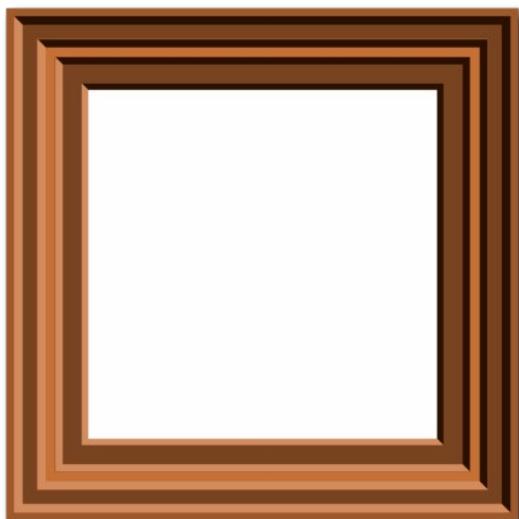

The image shows the front page of The West Australian newspaper. The masthead 'The West Australian' is at the top in a large, ornate, black, Gothic-style font. Between 'The' and 'Australian' is a decorative crest featuring a lion and a unicorn flanking a shield. To the right of the masthead is a small rectangular box containing the publication details: 'PERTH, TUESDAY, MARCH 3, 1942, PRICE TWOPENCE'. The main body of the page is a large, empty rectangular area for news content, with a thin vertical line on the left side defining its boundary.

Concluding activity: My visit

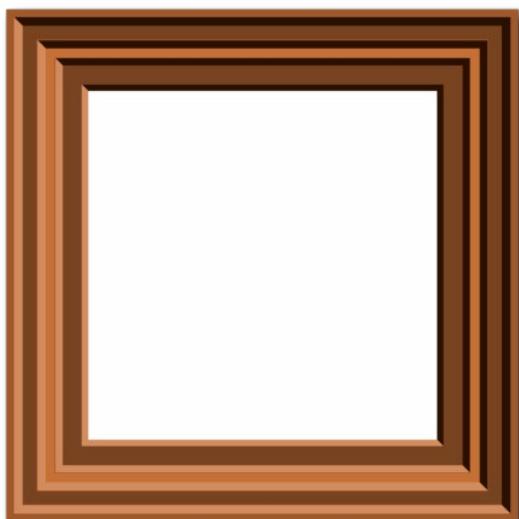

Explore the Museum and all the other buildings select three items that you saw – one that made you happy, one that made you sad and one that was interesting. Draw the item and finish the sentences to explain your choice.

This item was interesting because...

This item made me feel sad because....

This item made me feel happy because....
